Dear Mr. McAgent,

I have just completed a new thriller titled "The Killer", and would like to know if you'd be interested in seeing a copy with an eye toward possible representation.

Kyle Travis wakes in his hospital bed without any memory. After a short recuperation he reluctantly returns to his former life as a New York police lieutenant. His first case finds him investigating a series of murders. But the more he investigates, the more the evidence points to himself as the killer! Did he commit the murders? Can he trust the memories that he slowly recalls? And what will he do if someone else finds out his secret?

I recently graduated from Southern Midwest University with a bachelor's degree in communications and have had several of my plays produced locally. "The Killer" also has performed well in several prestigious contests including placing as a semi-finalist in the Nicholl Fellowship Contest and was a finalist in the 2006 American Screenwriter's Association Contest.

If you'd like me to send you "The Killer" for your consideration, you may contact me directly at the address on this letterhead, or simply return the stamped postcard I've enclosed for your convenience.

Thank you for your consideration, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Pro
